Informational Report Organizer

Use this organizer to write your rough draft.

Title: ____________________________________________________________

→ Paragraph 1

Introduce your topic with two or three sentences. Your first sentence should include your topic. Your second sentence can explain your purpose for writing this piece.

__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________

Paragraphs 2-4 of your informational report should explain what you found out when you researched. Each paragraph should be about a different idea, but should still support your topic sentence.

→ Paragraph 2

Topic sentence:
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________

Details to support the topic sentence:
1. _________________________________________
   _____________________________________________
   _____________________________________________
   _____________________________________________

2. _________________________________________
   _____________________________________________
   _____________________________________________

3. _________________________________________
   _____________________________________________
   _____________________________________________
   _____________________________________________

Paragraph 3

Topic sentence:

1. __________________________
2. __________________________
3. __________________________

Details to support the topic sentence:

1. __________________________
2. __________________________
3. __________________________

Paragraph 4

Topic sentence:

1. __________________________
2. __________________________
3. __________________________

Details to support the topic sentence:

1. __________________________
2. __________________________
3. __________________________

Paragraph 5

Your final paragraph should sum up what you’ve learned or how you feel about the topic. It should leave readers with no questions.

__________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________